Descent Newsletter (16) August 2022

This edition of the newsletter will be fairly brief, coming mid-issue. We have a couple of things to mention ...

The first relates to the current edition, (287) for August which came out at the start of the month while Judith and I were at the UIS International Congress in France (in fact, you say this issue well before we did). At the same time, a website error arose - not of our making, but introduced by the company that adds a security layer to the website, which for about three days caused visitors to reach the home page but all the others reported they were missing. Once spotted, this was soon corrected - but apologies to anyone who was caught up in this while trying to renew their subscription. If you haven't yet to be ready for the next issue (which will be somewhat a special edition), or you wish to buy a single issue, it's all working now!

The other mention is of our caption competition, with a flagship caving light from Petzl, the latest DUO RL worth nearly £750, as the prize. This is your reminder - why not enter? But, you only have until the end of the month to do so.

We hope to hear from you.

Best wishes from
Chris & Judith
